EXHIBITORSTE STIMONIAL

The fair was extremely rewarding, with direct contact with consumers and partners. We were impressed by the number of people and nearly sold out all our products. It was a success.

Vida Veg has a special connection with VegFest, as the brand was practically born at this event. Each year we participate, we surpass our numbers, strengthen the experience with consumers, and further solidify the brand.

ÁLVARO GAZOLLA
CEO VIDA VEG

From the very first day of the event, we were pleasantly surprised by the constant activity. Our audience is eager to learn about our products and new launches, such as our butter, which received 100% acceptance. For us, coming from the South, participating is an excellent opportunity to connect with new audiences and markets.

ECOSSISTEMA PARA EVENTOS

The 2024 edition, in partnership with SVB, highlights the growth of the vegan market and attracts an increasingly diverse audience, including non-vegans. VegFest plays an educational and inclusive role, supporting small and medium-sized entrepreneurs. It is rewarding to see companies achieving success, with products selling out. Despite the great responsibility, the fair delivers positive results and improves year after year.
