VEGFEST is one of the largest vegan events in the Americas and takes place in São Paulo, the vegan capital of the country

It's four days of immersion in the vegan universe, boosting the sector's economy and providing learning and knowledge for all visitors.

Bringing knowledge, updates and dispelling myths, the well-established 12th BRAZILIAN VEGAN CONGRESS AND EXHIBITION brings together global speakers over the four days of the festival.

The event also includes the VEGAN FAIR, which brings together more than 100 exhibitors and hundreds of products, from cosmetics, food to PET products.

The FESTIVAL also features show classes, entertainment, party and sports attractions, making VEGFEST one of the most anticipated events of the year.

FRANCAL

Promoter of Vegfest, Francal is one of the main players in the trade fair market. With 100% national capital, it contributes not only to the economic and social development of the 15 different sectors in which it operates, but also to the economy of the places where it holds its events. With over five decades of experience, it is a benchmark in Brazil and recognized abroad.

www.francal.com.br

The Brazilian Vegetarian Society (SVB), organizer and creator of Vegfest, is a non-profit organization that promotes vegan food as an ethical, healthy, sustainable and socially just choice. It raises awareness about the benefits of vegetarianism and works to increase the population's access to vegan products and services.

STATEMENT

EXHIBITORS 2024

"From the first day of the event, we were positively surprised by the constant movement. Our public is looking to find out about our products and launches, such as our butter, which was 100% accepted. For those of us from the South, taking part is an excellent opportunity to connect with new audiences and markets."

MARILI SCHISCHOFF
COMMERCIAL DIRECTOR

"Vida Veg has a special connection with VegFest, since the brand was practically born at this event. Every year we take part, we exceed our numbers, we strengthen the experience with consumers, and the brand becomes even more consolidated."

ÁLVARO GAZOLLA
CEO OF VIDA VEG

"The fair was extremely rewarding, with direct contact with consumers and partners. We were impressed by the volume of people and sold out almost all of our products. It was a success."
